Nestled in one of Adelaide's most tightly held suburbs, famed for its character heritage and large allotments lies this 1910 Villa brimming with gorgeous charm & character. Sitting on a very handsome 1125sqm inner-metro parcel, the rare days of back-yard cricket and marks-up footy are still upon us.

As you enter the home the first thing you notice is the stunning entrance hallway, 4 metre high ceilings, pine floorboards, and art-deco ceiling roses throughout the original dwelling. The 3 queen-sized bedrooms and a large family room all with beautiful surround tiled fireplaces and timber mantels.

The hub of the home lies within the light-filled kitchen and dining area, freshly renovated in timeless neutral colours and tones with Caesar-stone bench top, glass splashback, white laminate soft-close cupboards and quality stainless steel appliances. Dining with glass backdrop views of the outdoor entertaining area and the largest stretch of manicured lawn you can imagine plus a boundary with nutrient-rich soil perfect for you to add to the
