Charming Townhouse – SOLD with buyers missing out! More properties Wanted

Perfectly located between the City and Sea, hidden within Allenby Garden's peaceful and vibrant linear estate – a Torrens Titled double-storey townhouse with dual frontages and access awaits its new owner to stamp their own individuality to the timeless neutral tones and tasteful character. This three-bedroom property offers immediate entry into a convenient and peaceful lifestyle of relaxation without compromise as it is easily transformed into quite the entertainer.

As you walk through the gates and enter through the heritage-green front door with stained glass panels, you will feel a pleasant ambiance created by the charm, angles and sophisticated decor of the home. An open living area located on the ground floor that stretches the length of the house offers functional space of ample proportions and charming timeless features such as the bay windows and ceiling rose in the lounge room, and light filled kitchen overlooking the paved courtyard and year-round manicured lawn.

Utilising angles and clever use of corners provide ample benchtop and storage space, including cupboards around and above the wide alcove for the fridge. The stainless-steel gas stove-top and electric oven opposite to the sink and breakfast bar creates a neat and functional hub environment for food preparation and cooking.

Outside, enjoy the comfort of a paved undercover Patio area extending to a pitched-roof carport which can be cleared to provide plenty of space for year-round outdoor entertaining. Utilise existing fixed anchor points of the external structure as provisions to further erect temporary cover for those
