

Italian Restaurant and Function Centre

Not very often we have the opportunity to bring to the market such a unique great eatery in Adelaide, this fully renovated fully licensed Italian restaurant has been operating from the same venue for many years with great success and the current owner has full renovated the premises and has added a new function room fully licensed for 100 patrons this will give the new owner a complete restaurant together with a function room able to cater for more than 200 patrons at the sometime.

The premises are well equipped with a full commercial kitchen, a fully set out outside Kitchen and BBQ area capable of preparing and cooking meats, fish or any other food, 2 bars both equipped with coffee machine which can operate independently from each other, Pizza oven plenty carparks and a renovated quarter complete with a rest area and private shower.

This business would be suitable and adaptable to any cuisine and the opportunity to cater for different private functions separated from the restaurant.

The Business is on the market, for a fraction of plant and equipment and set up cost.
