UNDER CONTRACT PENDING FINANCE

Nestled in a quiet street on the border of Flinders Park and Allenby Gardens new estate, just a block away from the beautiful River Torrens Linear Park lies this family courtyard home. Situated between the City and Sea and surrounded by quality homes alike, this sought-after location offers beauty and convenience including close access to recreational parks, numerous shopping centres, fantastic selection of public and private schools and great transport amenities.

Circa 1999, the home exploits its wide frontage offering a double garage without compromise, boasting character, street appeal and low maintenance living. The hub of the home is its light-filled open plan kitchen, dining and living area with sliding door access to the paved undercover outdoor entertainment area for those year-round family gatherings. The intelligent lay-out design maximizes the use of space including dual access of the main bathroom doubling as an ensuite to the master bedroom, an additional toilet, double garage with drive-through width access to the rear/side outdoor entertainment area and direct entry access to the home via the laundry/ mud room.
