

Corner, Character & Charm

Nestled within a peaceful, tree-lined street and embraced by beautiful character residences alike, discover this enchanting, solid brick family home boasting generous proportions on a 639sqm corner allotment. Seamlessly blending contemporary comfort with enduring character, this property offers a unique opportunity for astute buyers seeking to craft enduring family memories and build long-term wealth through strategic land holding within a sought-after suburb in sync with Adelaide's consistent capital growth.

Constructed circa 1937, the home showcases a design filled with natural light and vintage features, such as 10-foot ceilings, polished hardwood floors, glass bay windows, and ornate ceiling roses. Thoughtfully updated, the kitchen and bathroom strike a harmonious balance between timeless charm and practical modernity.

Benefiting from dual street frontage and robust foundations, this property lays the groundwork for potential expansions and further enhancements. A rare chance awaits to leverage the advantages and creative possibilities inherent in a square corner allotment configuration with multiple access points.
