Trott Park Shopping Centre presents an exceptional opportunity to acquire a tightly held suburban retail investment anchored by a long established IGA Local Grocer, supported by a strategically curated mix of daily needs and lifestyle tenants. The centre occupies a significant land holding in an established residential catchment, benefiting from strong local patronage and minimal direct competition. Positioned in Adelaide’s southern suburbs, Trott Park is a family oriented enclave within the City of Marion, surrounded by established housing, schools, reserves, and growing residential infill demand. The centre is well connected via major arterials including Happy Valley Drive, Lonsdale Road, and the Southern Expressway, providing convenient east-west and north-south access for both shoppers and service providers. This offering is perfectly suited to investors seeking a secure income stream, long term tenancy stability, and a large land footprint with future upside (STCC).
